Re: Guidelines for Protection of Customer Data

Dear Ms. Boyd:

Attached are Lockhart Power Company's guidelines for protection of customer data. These guidelines set forth the Company's existing policies and procedures for Protection of Customer Data. The written guidelines were created and are being filed in compliance with recently promulgated Regulation 103-823.2 of the Public Service Commission's Rules and Regulations.

Lockhart Power Company does not sell customer data. The Company has never and does not intend to provide customer information to any other entity except for its third-party partners who are contracted to provide services to the Company in the operation of its normal business activities, as permitted by Reg. 103-823.2(F). Lockhart Power itself makes every effort to protect customer information through the security of its computer system, PCI compliance, training of its applicable employees and any other ways that seem pertinent to the Company's operations.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Margaret M. Fox
